

Brother Stahl Fernandes

We enrolled Stahl Fernandes at our July meeting. Stahl can be seen proudly receiving his certificate of brotherhood after marking his official induction into the Catenian Association. With him in this photograph are William, Rhind, Provincial President, Bernard Nelligan, Croydon Circle President and Brother Mike O'Neill, Provincial Membership Officer.

For the past seven years, Stahl and his wife Eva have felt deeply rooted in Croydon. They are members of the St. Dominic's Church in Waddon, where they attend Mass and participate in various parish activities and volunteer opportunities.

Stahl works at Martin & Co estate agents in South Croydon, which has given him the opportunity to connect with many wonderful people in the area. In his free time, he loves going for walks in parks or the nearby woods, enjoying watching movies at home and at the cinema, and exploring restaurants. As a foodie at heart, he is always open to various cuisines.

Stahl is also tech-savvy and has a deep connection with mobiles, computers, and an array of gadgets. Keeping up with the latest technological advancements and new features excites him, as he enjoys exploring how these innovations can improve our daily lives and enhance our connectivity.

Meeting new people and helping others is something Stahl is passionate about. He is looking forward to building lasting friendships and contributing to the Catenian Association.

Stahl's sponsors were Gerry Gallen and Noel Brownsell.
